INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors of United Way of Prince Edward Island,

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of United Way of Prince Edward Island, which comprise of the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2022 and the statements of changes in net assets, operations and cash flow for the year then ended and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matters discussed in the Basis for Qualified Opinion section, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of United Way of Prince Edward Island as at March 31, 2022, and the results of its operations, net assets, and cash flow for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian Accounting Standards for Not-For-Profit Organizations.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibility for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the organization in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements.

As is common in many not-for-profit organizations, United Way of Prince Edward Island derives revenues from campaign or fundraising activities and events, the completeness of which is not susceptible to satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, verifications of these revenues was limited to the amounts recorded in the records of United Way of Prince Edward Island. Therefore we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to campaign revenues, excess revenues over expenses and cash flow from operations for the year ended March 31, 2022 and March 31, 2021, current assets as at March 31, 2022 and net assets as at April 1, and March 31, for both the 2021 and 2022 years.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian Accounting Standards for Not-For-Profit Organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the organization's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management intends to liquidate the organization or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the organization's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibility for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements. As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control;
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the organization's internal control;
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management;
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the organization to cease to continue as a going concern;
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

UNITED WAY OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2022

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

The United Way of Prince Edward Island (United Way) is a federally registered foundation that provides leadership and uses volunteers to raise and distribute money for programs and services to help meet the humanitarian needs of communities on Prince Edward Island. The Organization is registered as a registered charitable foundation with Canada Revenue Agency under the Income Tax Act and as such, is exempt from income taxes.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian Accounting Standards for Not-For-Profit Organizations in Part III of the CPA Canada Handbook and include the following significant accounting policies.

REVENUE

The United Way of Prince Edward Island follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions. Restricted contributions are recognized as revenue in the year in which the related expense occurs or the restrictions are met. Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable, if the amount can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Campaign pledges and donations that are undesignated or are directed to a focus area or priority goal by the donor are recognized as revenue in the year that they are received or pledged at the amount committed less a provision for uncollectable pledges. Funds raised during a campaign, net of related campaign expenses and provisions are used to provide funds for operations in the current year and fund partner programs and services in the following fiscal year.

Campaign pledges and donations that are designated by the donor to other Canadian registered charities and other United Ways are considered to be restricted by purpose and are recognized as revenue in the year they are pledged.

National or regional workplace campaigns that are coordinated by one United Way on behalf of other United Ways are known as Centrally Coordinated Campaigns. The pledges and donations received by other United Ways on behalf of the Organization are reported separately and included in pledges receivable until the revenue is received.

Restricted investment income and unrealized gains and losses are recognized as revenue when the related expense is incurred. Restricted endowment investment income is recorded in the statement of changes in net assets when earned. Unrestricted investment income is recognized when earned in the statement of operations.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

CONTRIBUTED SERVICES AND MATERIALS

Volunteers contribute a considerable amount of time each year to run the annual campaign and to assist the organization in carrying out its programs and services. Because of the difficulty in determining the fair value of these services, contributed services are not recognized on these financial statements.

Contributions of assets, supplies and services that would otherwise have been purchased are recorded at fair value at the date of contribution, provided a fair value can be reasonably determined.

GOVERNMENT ASSISTANCE

The organization has recognized financial assistance under government incentive programs. Government assistance, including investment tax credits, relating to capital expenditures is reflected as a reduction of the cost of the related asset. Government assistance relating to the reimbursement of expenses is recorded as revenue in the period the expenditure was incurred.

EXPENSE RECOGNITION

The organization recognizes expenses in the year they are incurred and donor-directed designations when they are distributed. Expenses are reported within the following two categories:

The cost of fundraising is recognized in the year it is incurred, and includes an allocation of the associated general administrative costs. A designation fee is charged to designated charities to recover the cost of fundraising and processing. The fee is reported as revenue and is recognized when the related designation is recognized as revenues. The Organization also incurs Government of Canada Workplace Charitable Campaign (GCWCC) Fundraising costs on behalf of participants of the GCWCC campaign (i.e. Healthpartners) and recovers their portion of the costs based on a pro-rata share of the revenue. GCWCC recoveries are reported as a reduction of the fundraising costs and recognized when deducted or received from recipients.

Community development priority program expenses are investments made to agencies and community Organizations through a call for proposal process, to deliver front-line programs and services that align to priority goals. These expenses are recognized in the year the annual program funding is approved by the Board and the recipient agencies are notified and accept the funding agreement.

DONOR DIRECTED DESIGNATIONS

Designated donations are recognized as revenue in the year they are received or pledged. The organization pays the designated funds to Canadian Registered Charities in addition to the funding for partner programs and services.

CASH

Cash consists of cash on hand and balances held at financial institutions with a maturity less than one year.

PLEDGES RECEIVABLE

Pledges are recorded as revenue and receivable when signed pledge documents are received or other documents are available to provide reasonable evidence of a valid pledge. The provision for pledge losses is estimated as a percentage of the campaign revenue by management based on a five-year average. During the current year management used a factor of 4.8% (2021 - 4.8%) of total campaign revenues to determine this provision. Uncollectable pledge receivables are written off in full after two years on the statement of operations.

TANGIBLE CAPITAL ASSETS

Tangible capital assets are stated at cost. Depreciation of tangible capital assets is provided for using the declining balance and straight line methods at the rates shown in Note 5. Depreciation of additions is calculated at one-half the stated rate. No depreciation is recorded in the year of disposal. Tangible capital assets should be tested for impairment.

LEASES

Leases are classified as either capital or operating leases. A lease that transfers substantially all the benefits and risks incidental to the ownership of property is classified as a capital lease. All other leases are accounted for as operating leases wherein rental payments are amortized on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease to net income. At the inception of the capital lease, an asset and an obligation is recorded at an amount equal to the lesser of the present value of the minimum lease payment and the property's fair value at the beginning of the lease.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of these financial statements in conformity with Canadian Accounting Standards for Not-For-Profit Organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the current period. These estimates are reviewed periodically and adjustments are made to income as appropriate in the year they become known.

The use of estimates are used in the determination of depreciation, which requires an estimate by management in regards to the estimated useful life of the tangible capital assets allowance for doubtful accounts, which requires an estimate in regards of the collectability of receivables and, as such, bad debt expense is based on these estimates.

In many countries, including Canada, businesses are being forced to cease or limit operations for long or indefinite periods. Measures taken to contain the spread of the virus, include travel bans, quarantines, social distancing, and closures of non-essential services have triggered significant disruptions to businesses worldwide, resulting in an economic slowdown. Governments and central banks have responded with monetary and fiscal interventions to stabilize economic conditions.
